

Celime,, I have taken the liberty of rearranging today's schedule, adding a few meetings that otherwise would have been with me. In the rising rate of overland trade, I feel it's wise to let you expand more

Morning Quintar, 2nd chime: Review days notes and files

Morning Quintar, 3rd chime: Meeting with Melyra, Secretary Treasurer, to run through some log information already compiled by the understaff on the viability of raised taxes to enter the city in this time of crisis

Morning Quintar, 4th chime: prep two understaff to begin the report on visitor impressions to Sarnaki, as a pamphlet for trade to be distributed in Sel-kai

Midday Quintar, 1st chime: Lunch

Midday Quintar, 2nd chime: Pirate activity may be down around Jantane'n, but gold and emerald merchant Osmir, has now even more difficulty delivering his merchandise over sea. He has to come through Sarnak. He may be evasive at first, but he has no legs to stand on. A tariff and trade agreement should be worked out

Midday Quintar, 3rd chime: Write up proposal to review negotiation of trade of acquired Falkennan mine's to return to Ministry of Trade from the Ministry of Agriculture. Note, make sure to highlight the necessity now more than ever we must keep all entries into the city monitored by one body rather than whoever lays claim. And who better to take an official stance on this than the Ministry of Trade

Midday Quintar, 4th Chime: Convey report to debating chambers for inclusion in the afternoons sitting.

Midday Quintar, 5th Chime: Arrange notes after report from understaff and prepare for me, on the morrow and deliver personally to me