We have not had the pleasure of meeting, Lord Stepan, but your letter speaks to me of a time when we can. I have been following the events from afar here in Kairaine regarding our homeland and I am saddened by Jaestas loss and its growing unification under your strong guidance.

I will leave immediately for Orian upon a skyship, for Kairaine has suffered greatly under severe essence voids that have all but crippled navigator services. Lord Gall has informed me of the changes in the council and I too hope peace and prosperity can be brought to our peoples.

I pray to Myrstra she watches over you and those valiant men and women to enter battle against the Sarnaki, though I know she watches strongly over you with protection, wisdom and love.

I look forward to our meeting.

Jysela Orian

Princess of Miir
