

Lord Stepan Nemeck

Sir, I am unsure of what these means. This letter comes to you at the sudden arrival of this Nomari, Lusham from the city of Jon-Bor of whom my men had almost given up the hunt of at the behest of Lady Celime. She came this day packed and ready saying Celime needed her.

Please sir, allow Lusham by her side. This is the woman that nursed and cared for her in Celimes childhood under Mistress Urinaechaer and the Sorcerer Ventine. It was he who cast her out.

I fear what this means, Lord Stepan, please write to me with news I beg of you.

Count Bryce Korel