

Moreover I find nothing to impress the necessity that Charize deems so important upon Ulyshak as the scum that he veritably is will never learn temperance

I cannot but wonder of this meetings direction

Majel Gavant as ever determined in his desire to take the mines Eog be damned we need a ruler of Dreygen blood and while it may be suitable for an arranged marriage to consolidate matters between Nemeck and Dreygen one could care less for their drawn out rivalry

At least there is guarantee in Ulyshaks death and for that I am happy for the privilege of striking down this traitor makes a man happy for then will grow a new land under a banner of tradition

Gavant maintains that even with Ulyshak fallen either before or after success will be ours yet I cannot but wonder and distrust my northern partner in this as his methods are insidious and far from the battlefield

This Amethyst League is widespread so much so I wonder who among my chattel take from his deep pocket

By all actions I am sure this mans organization precipitated the troubles in Stroane

I will have his head beside Ulyshaks once this farce is all over

The support of Lord Bela beside I must wonder about Orians support of this They are weak and incompetent yet marriage to the kings daughter could see restoration of stability and nobility She is a sweet soul and one I dream of having at my side

Orian is simply to not be trusted the council fractitious and double dealing Majel recently warned us of the Sarnaki presence infecting the council and swaying away the Kings daughter My rage is strong

Tomorrow we ride upon Pellern and may the Lords of Orhan smile upon us as we face the true usurper Lord Stjepan Nemeck
