

Lord Stjepan

My greetings to you. As per discussed when we last met, I have agreed to your request for men to join your order of the reestablished Ahn Sye Nokora. As such, I have sent thirty of my best knights to offer their services.

All details of lineage and duty is documented and in the care of Lord Joschia, who commands the respect of the knights I have assembled waiting your inspection.

I wish I could personally attend to personally introduce you to these men, but difficulties with Murlogi require my immediate presence in the Mountains.

May Mynistra smile upon you

Lord Murain
