

Lord Stepan Nemeck, Lord of Miir

As always, Lord Stepan you have Bornay's support, especially against the foul women of Sarnak that would do such a heinous action against Bentara. With Chelzaria our only bastion before our doors, I offer two hundred men immediately if you will have them to aid with strengthening the borders.

I can rally more men to your banner, but this would take time. I have asked Lord Samat' Menat to lead this force of two hundred to you. We await your confirmation.

Lord Dennys of Bornay
