

My Lord, Stjepan Remeck

Majel Swant did not have far to go to get to his lands. He met up with the Rhn Rye Rokoroa that escorted him, they were turned back at Sourel. At my request I have asked them to remain with me at my location at the small keep in Sienne overlooking Sourel to the East and Eldonen to the north.

Good news along the way was Lord Radomir with thirty of his men ready to join with us at the ford near the empty Rymoris estate. I do not know if he is mad or not, but he speaks few about fish save lamenting it.

We will hold Sienne, a vital position and observation point. I am riding with small escort to Rymoris, then Rasek and Remeris a trip that should take six days. You will hear from me then.

Faithfully

Ruse Rwarath
