

Lord Stjepan

Your letter was pleasant distraction from a harsh and particularly land locking winter.

From my memory the Amethyst League did hint at having a base of operations in the Ash Woods. I know very little, my Lord, as it was less than open and favourable in my mind's eye. I never fully supported their actions, it was just theirs pointed in my own misguided one's at that time.

I know of this place because Ulyshak did mention of it, I never heard of it directly from the visiting League. I hope that is of some help. I thank you for your blessing and as soon as the spring melt is upon us would like much to meet.

Your servant
Lord Mallion
